ST. James's, Auguſt 1. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to his Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, together with the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk; preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Charles Turner, and the Right Honourable Robert Walpole, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, Gentlemen, Freemen and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Dover; preſented to his Majeſty by Matthew Aylmer and Philip Papillon, Eſqrs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dorſet, Lord Warden of the Cinque-Ports.

An humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Bedford; preſented to his Majeſty by William Farrer and John Thurloe Brace, Eſqrs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Kent, Lord-Lieutenant of that County.

Which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

St. James's, Auguſt 2. Yeſterday being the Day of his Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown, there was a very numerous and ſplendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction; the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired, and at Night there were Illuminations and other Publick Demonſtrations of Joy throughout London and Weſtminſter.

Vienna, July 20. On the 10th Inſtant Prince Eugene of Savoy came back from Comorra in Hungary, where he has been to view the Fortifications. On the 11th the Count du Luc Ambaſſador of France had a private Audience of the Emperor. On the 13th Count Kinski was declared Chancellor of Bohemia, and on the 16th he took the uſual Oath in the Bohemian Council aſſembled at Court for that Purpoſe. The Emperor has received four Letters together from the King of Sweden, who in them gives him the Stile of Catholick Majeſty. The Venetian Ambaſſadors are to make their Entry here on the 23d Inſtant. The laſt Letters from Adrianople relate, that Orders were ſent to the Hoſpodar of Moldavia, to furniſh immediately all that is yet neceſſary for finiſhing the Fortifications of Cochim: And that the Tartar Han had ſent two Bodies, one of 12000 Men into the Morea, and the other of 10000 into Dalmatia, commanded by his two Brothers.

Ratisbon, July 29. The Elector Palatine having complained to the Dyet againſt the Incroachments of the French in ſeizing his Bailliage of Seltz on the Upper Rhine, the Provoſtſhip and Tolls there, with Part of the Succeſſion of Veldentz, to which he lays Claim and was in Poſſeſſion; on Pretence that thoſe Places and Rights depend on the Sovereignty of Alſatia, the ſame Ground on which the famous Reunions were formerly made, tho' directly contrary to the Treaties of Weſtphalia, Ryſwick, and Baden; a Reſolution has been taken to deſire the Emperor would employ his beſt Offices and all proper Means in the Name of the Empire, for procuring his Electoral Highneſs due Satisfaction from the Court of France. The Duke of Wirtemberg Monbeliard, the Biſhop of Spire, and the Eccleſiaſtical Electors on the Rhine, have Grievances of the ſame Nature concerning their Fiefs and Benefices which lye in Alſatia; tho' as they have not yet been propoſed in Form, the Reſolution about them is deferred, but will not fail to be in their Favour. The Diſputes between the Houſes of Denmark and Holſtein having been recommended to the Dyet in ſeveral Memorials by the reſpective Miniſters, they were propoſed on the 19th Inſtant, and by a Majority of Votes were recommended to the Emperor's Examination, that Care might be taken at the Congreſs of Brunſwick to put an End to theſe Diſputes according to the Juſtice of the Cauſe, the Treaty of Weſtphalia, and the publick Conſtitutions of the Empire. The circular Dyet of Swabia has been for ſome Days aſſembled at Ulm, to take the proper Meaſures for their Advantage and Security in Conjunction with the other aſſociated Circles, which they judge more neceſſary ſince the dangerous Situation of Affairs in the North might occaſion new Diſorders in the Empire. This Morning Prince Lowenſtein's Baggage arrived here from Vienna, and he is expected in in a little Time. The Director of Mentz is gone for a few Days to Munich, and the Dyet will not meet again till he returns.

Stockholm, June 17. On the 5th Inſtant the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe returned hither from taking a View of the Coaſt between this Place and Gaſle. 'Tis ſaid his Highneſs will ſpeedily make another Tour, to view all the Troops in this Kingdom. Lieutenant General Ranck ſet out from hence on the 15th for Stralſund; and yeſterday M. Maltzbourg, who lately came hither from the Landgrave of Heſſe-Caſſel to compliment the Princeſs Royal on her Marriage, went from hence likewiſe for Stralſund. On the 14th Inſtant Mr. Jackſon, the Britiſh Reſident, preſented to the Royal Chancery here a Memorial in the Name of the King his Maſter, demanding Satisfaction for the Damage ſuffered by his Majeſty's Subjects, by the taking of their Ships and Goods by the Swediſh Privateers.

Copenhagen, July 27. On the 22d Inſtant at Night arrived here a Lieutenant diſpatched by Admiral Rabe, with an Account, that the Daniſh and Swediſh Fleets had been in ſight of each other three Days; but that Admiral Rabe obſerving the Swedes had the Wind of him, had judged it proper to retire towards the Iſland of Meunen; the rather becauſe the Swedes had 21 Men of War of the Line, and he has but 16, and therefore he deſires a Reinforcement as ſoon as poſſible. Hereupon all Diligence is uſed to Man and ſend out three Ships, one of 60 Guns, the others of 50 Guns each that are in this Port, two of which will put out to Sea this Day or to morrow, and the other will follow very ſpeedily. In the mean while Admiral Rabe lies between Meunen and Dornbuſch.
